2.2 Our Supply Chain

Our suppliers are spread across the globe where we procure services from multiple categories of suppliers. Majority of our global suppliers are engaged in supplying hardware, software, cloud services, networking equipment, recruitment, talent acquisition, office space leases, corporate activities, admin, facility, security, infrastructure, employee travel and related services.

03. Our Business

LTM as a conscientious organization is at the forefront of Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG), driven by an unwavering commitment to responsible growth aligned with ethical conduct and sustainable business practices. Our ESG vision with clear goals, defined roadmaps, and notable achievements, reflects our proactive focus on environmental stewardship, employee well-being and engagement, diversity and inclusion, and community impacts. This commitment is reinforced by robust policies, strict adherence to our code of conduct, a strong risk management and compliance framework, high governance standards, transparent and accountable reporting and disclosures. Our ESG reports are available on our website (<https://www.ltm.com/services/esg/esg-reports>). By integrating ESG across our strategy, operations, and value chain, we are helping build a sustainable, equitable, and prosperous future that creates long-term value for all stakeholders.

04. Reporting Entity's Structure, Operations, and Supply Chain

4.1 Company Overview and Operations

LTM supports the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour to ensure that we conduct business operations ethically, source responsibly and work to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking. We are committed to addressing the modern slavery risks in our business and supply chain and ensuring that we have effective systems and practices in place to combat slavery and human trafficking. This statement highlights the key activities that we have undertaken during this FY 2025-26 to combat modern slavery in our organisation and supply chain.

4.2 Complaint Mechanism

We have systems in place to encourage the reporting of concerns and protection of whistleblower. All Whistleblowers have access to complaint mechanism, where they can lodge complaints on various concerns not limited to use of child labour, modern slavery, forced, bonded, or indentured labour or involuntary prison labour, human trafficking etc. Our whistleblower policy can be accessed at

4.3 Periodic Review

Our compliance framework, including our policies, procedures, supplier agreements, mandatory training modules, employee and supplier code of conduct covers compliance to modern slavery which are reviewed and updated for changes from time to time to ensure compliance with applicable laws.

05. Due Diligence, Risk Assessment and Risk Mitigation Processes for Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking

5.1 Due Diligence Process

We carry out due-diligence procedures before onboarding new suppliers and all suppliers are contractually required to comply with applicable laws, regulations, and accept our supplier code of conduct.

5.2 Risk Mitigation Process

Our procurement agreements cover the modern slavery related compliance requirements. We have carried out annual risk assessment of global supply chain of our company, overseas branches, and subsidiaries to assess, identify and address modern slavery related risks and outcome is summarised hereunder.

5.3 Risk Assessment

We have carried out risk assessment to assess the modern slavery risks that may be present anywhere in our global, domestic operations and supply chains. The assessment was carried out for the below mentioned areas-

- A. Sector & industry risk assessment
- B. Goods & services category risk assessment
- C. Geographic risk assessment

A. Sector & Industry Risk Assessment

Risk assessment was carried out for identifying suppliers at risk for major sectors and risk rating are provided below

Low risk - information technology related (hardware, software, cloud services & network)

Moderate risk – admin & facilities related (security, infrastructure, health & safety)

Low risk - talent acquisition (manpower, background verifications service providers)

Low risk - corporate activities (accounting, consulting, training, immigration)

B. Goods & Services Category Risk Assessment

We have carried out risk assessment for the goods and services and identified where modern slavery risk is low in areas like hospitality, security services and gardening services and moderate in a few areas like building infrastructure and maintenance, waste management etc. The above risk arises from third party outsourcing.

C. Geographic Risk Assessment

Based on our modern slavery risk assessment, we have reviewed suppliers who are present in countries vulnerable to modern slavery and found it as low risk. We will continue to identify by way of ongoing periodic assessments, any modern slavery risks that may be present anywhere in our global and domestic operations and supply chains of our company branches and subsidiaries.

The overall risk assessment for all the above categories is low for FY 2025-26.

06. Training and Awareness

To create awareness and promote best practices, we have mandatory e-Learning training courses on code of conduct for all employees, contractors, and sub-contractors. We have enabled access for modern slavery training for our vendors/ suppliers in the company's supplier portal to create awareness about modern slavery.

07. Measuring Effectiveness in Combating Slavery & Human Trafficking

7.1 Supplier Engagement Program

This program integrates a continuing evaluation, capacity building and risk management with a focus on human rights, labour practices and regulatory compliance. Our supply chain is integrally linked to its successful growth, supported by due diligence on supplier onboarding process which covers modern slavery risks. Our supplier code of conduct can be accessed at <https://www.LTM.com/content/dam/ltimcorporetewebsite/uploads/investors/2022/12/LTM-Supplier-Code-Of-Conduct.pdf>.

We expect that the above steps will ensure responsible behaviour from our suppliers.

7.2 Prevention of Slavery and Human Trafficking

As per the key performance indicators of our whistleblower mechanism, we did not have any complaints relating to slavery and human trafficking across our company and subsidiaries during the FY 2025-26. We use oversight measures like audits and adverse media screening & due diligence tool for all active suppliers to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains. High risk suppliers are audited, and the scope covers modern slavery risks. The mandatory declarations are obtained from all suppliers for adherence to supplier code of conduct. Age checks are carried out at our premises to prevent child labour.

08. Remedies for Breach

In the event of failure of suppliers to comply with the above-mentioned policies, disciplinary action and/or further legal action may be initiated against the offending suppliers depending on the circumstances of the breach.

09. Consultations

During the year our subsidiary "Syncordis Ltd." 10045506 has been closed in UK. Till the closure of subsidiary company, they were subject to the same policies and procedures as set out in this statement and due to closure of subsidiary the consultation is not applicable.

10. Further Steps

We will include modern slavery in the scope of supplier audit program for covering suppliers at risk.

We will continue to periodically review our modern slavery and human rights policies to align with regulatory requirements and internal policies.

We will continue to obtain modern slavery declarations from Australia and UK suppliers.

11. Declarations

This statement has been prepared by our company pursuant to Section 13 of Australia Modern Slavery Act 2018, and Section 54(1) of UK Modern Slavery Act 2015, in respect of the financial year 2025-26. It sets the new and ongoing steps we are taking to address and prevent modern slavery taking place, both within our business and our supply chain. The Statement has been approved by the Board of Directors of our Company on July 11, 2026.
